Rose Cottage, Dutlas Near Knighton, Powys

A self-catering holiday cottage in the Welsh Borders, with beautiful scenery; and fantastic wildlife -the perfect retreat from a busy life

Introduction

Rose Cottage is situated in the picturesque upper Teme valley, on the border between Powys and Shropshire in the Welsh Borders.

Rose Cottage is a comfortable two-bedroom self-catering holiday cottage, very well equipped and with modern conveniences, stunning views, and lots of wildlife. Visitors find it a perfect retreat from the bustle of city life. (Most folk just kick off their shoes, light the fire, and watch through the windows!)

Dutlas is a hamlet of four houses, on the B4355, between Knighton and Newtown. It is situated just above the River Teme, with a long garden running from the cottage to the river.

Information

Rose Cottage has one double room and one twin room. It comfortably sleeps four; a cot is available if required. Oil fired central heating keeps the cottage wonderfully snug. The bathroom has both bath and shower.

The main sitting room has views towards Beacon Hill and Wales, and the sun room has views across the river to Shropshire. It is a great place for bird watching!

The main sitting room also has television with FreeSat, and a wood-burning stove for cool evenings. There is a telephone available for incoming calls. All linen is provided. Parking for up to three cars.

Please note that the house is not suitable for small children as there are 39 steps into the garden. Well behaved dogs are welcome by prior arrangement (£15 per dog pw). No smoking please.

Local attractions

There are many lovely places to visit in mid Wales, some within walking distance, some by train or car.

Beacon Hill (547 m) can be climbed straight from the cottage with fantastic views from the top. Offa's Dyke path passes nearby, and the Offa's Dyke Centre is in Knighton for information and an exhibition about the Dyke.

Knighton and Newtown are market towns with a variety of shops. Ludlow, Welshpool and Shrewsbury are all within an hour's drive. Ludlow is famous for fine food and its splendid medieval castle.

The Brecon Beacons and the sea at Aberdovey and Aberystwyth are all within easy reach.
